The Shelton State Skyland "Snooper" has been snooping around and has caught several employees doing things "right." In fact, the "Snooper" has caught students saying that members of the Shelton Skyland Campus Staff have done some "extra-ordinary" things. The "Snooper" has also heard students discussing some of the "positive" qualities of many of the Skyland employees.

Here are some of the things the "Snooper" has heard or witnessed.

The "Snooper" saw Betsy Blount, Mathematics Instructor, working extra hours on Thursday afternoon.

The "Snooper" heard a student in a class commenting on what a good motivator Jeanetta Hargrow is and how she is so talented at working with young people.

The "Snooper" heard a student praising Dr. Milady Murphy on her "positive" outlook on life. The student also stated that Dr. Murphy exemplified the characteristics of a "great leader."

The "Snooper" read in a student's paper how she had been encouraged by Dr. Randy Jarrell to continue at Shelton State. The student also stated that Dr. Jarrell, in her opinion, "is a principle oriented individual open minded and willing to continue to learn new things and develop new ideas possesses directness, has open communications is very supportive."

The "Snooper" heard so many outstanding comments on the "Halloween" Program that Glinda Blackshear, Alan Blackshear, and Syble Coats were involved in.
